

SHAREHOLDER COMMUNICATION POLICY

Tesseract Limited ACN 605 672 928 (“Company”)

The policy is aimed at providing and promoting an effective framework for the Company for communication with its shareholders to enable them, subject to commercial and confidentiality restraints, to exercise their rights as shareholders and to encourage their participation at general meetings.

In addition to this policy, the Company as a publicly listed company has obligations already under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and the ASX Listing Rules to keep the market fully informed of all information which may have, or could be expected to have, a material effect on the value or price of its securities.

1. General Policy

The board of directors of the Company (Board) aims to ensure that shareholders are informed of all information necessary to assess the performance of the Company and make informed decisions about the Company. All Company announcements must:

- (a) be made in a timely manner;
- (b) be factual and accurate;
- (c) be easily accessible and readable;
- (d) include ‘printer friendly options’ where appropriate for information that is available electronically;
- (e) expressed in a clear and objective manner, allowing investors to assess the impact of the information when making investment decisions; and
- (f) contain all material facts.

The Company aims to ensure that all shareholders, both individual and institutional, have simultaneous access to information and reports released by the Company. The Company will as soon as reasonably practicable notify the market via an announcement to the ASX of any information concerning the Company that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of the Company's securities. Ordinarily, market analysts, the stock exchange and industry bodies will also have access to information at the same time as the shareholders.

All announcements made by the Company to the ASX are also posted on the Company's website at www.tesseract.com.

Shareholders can electronically contact the Company on corporate@tesseract.com

(for general corporate enquiries), shareholder@tesseract.com (for general shareholder enquiries) or shareregister@tesseract.com (for enquiries related to the share registry), and the Company's share register on [insert], to express their views on:

- (a) the Company; or
- (b) matters or concern or interest to shareholders.

2. Access to Company information by shareholders

Shareholders will receive regular communications from the Company, including:

- (a) an invitation to the annual general meeting (AGM) and all accompanying documents within a reasonable time prior to the AGM to allow them time to considers questions to the Board;
- (b) invitations to general meetings that may be convened from time to time; and
- (c) a hard copy of the annual report and half yearly reports (for those shareholders who have elected to receive a hard copy).

1 The Company also releases:

- (a) notices of meetings and accompanying documents;
 - (b) annual reports;
 - (c) half yearly reports; and
 - (d) presentations made to investors, conferences and industry bodies,
- 1 on the 'Companies Announcement Platform' operated by the ASX.

SHAREHOLDER COMMUNICATION POLICY

2 From time to time the Company will communicate other information to shareholders, including by way of email if the shareholder elects to receive communications from the Company by email. Such communications will be on an “as needs basis” and may be disseminated by direct written communication to shareholders or by way of a Company announcement to the ASX which would also be published on the Company’s website.

2. Company website

1 As appropriate, the Company website must also include a “corporate governance” landing page from where all relevant corporate governance documents can be accessed, including:

- (a) contact details and biographies for each director and senior executive;
- (b) the Company constitution;
- (c) Board Charter and corporate governance policies and associated materials;
- (d) contact details for enquiries from shareholders, analysts or the media; and
- (e) links to the Company’s share registry.

3. AGM and General Meeting of Shareholder

1 The Company recognises the importance of transparent and effective communication at AGM’s and general meetings.

2 At AGM’s the Chairman, will be the person responsible for conducting the meeting. The Chairman will ensure that all shareholders have a reasonable opportunity to be heard and have their questions answered by the Board or external auditors. A similar approach is taken at any general meeting of shareholders.

3 The Company will ensure that its external auditor attends all AGMs and are prepared to answer any shareholder queries about the conduct of any audit and the preparation of the auditor’s report.

4. Policy Review

This Policy is subject to annual review by the Board.
